Dalmatian Discovery 8 days

Day 1:

Saturday. Hello Split and welcome aboard! Located in the heart of Dalmatia, Split boasts some great archaeological, historical and cultural monuments. Be sure to wander the old city and the UNESCO-listed Diocletian Palace.

Cruise check in is at 13:00 and then we set sail. Our first stop is lunch and a swim in one of the many quiet bays and onward to Rogoznica or Primosten. Both are picturesque waterside towns with cute cafes, restaurants and great locally grown wine!
Overnight - onboard

Day 2:

Rogoznica or Primosten - Sibinek - Krka Waterfalls - Skradin or Zlarin Port. This morning explore the historical town of Sibinek. The small town can be negotiated easily on foot, be sure to check out the Gothic styled Foscolo Palace and St Laurent Church. For the energetic take a hike up to the old castle for fantastic views of the town and coastline. We continue on to Krka and the afternoon is free for you to explore the National park, canyons and beautiful waterfalls. Overnight - onboard

Days 3 - 4:

Skradin/Zlarin Port - Kornati - Sali - Zadar. Kornati archipelago is made up of some 89 islands and reefs. Many of the islands drop sharply into the sea, the rich vertical underwater shelves team with an abundance of marine life. Don your snorkel and mask for an afternoon of snorkelling.

The morning of day 4 is reserved for further snorkelling and swimming. This afternoon at the port of Zadar we have a possibility to join a guided tour of the city or explore independently. Zadar has a rich monumental heritage dating from Roman occupation in the 1st century AD. The imposing 9th century Church of St. Donatus is circular in shape, typical of the early Byzantine age and regarded as the symbol of the city. There are numerous other monuments, city gates, villas and palaces to be explored as well as a lively cafe and bar scene. Overnight - onboard

Days 5 - 6:

Zadar - Vodice - Trogir. Today, we sail south, stopping for swim breaks at any one of the beautiful bays along the route. After lunch we dock at the ever lively resort town of Vodice. Spend the night at one of local cafes and restaurants. On day 6 we pull into port at the old Dalmatian town of Trogir, referred to as a "miniature Venice" or the floating museum town due to its many canals and masterful architecture. Overnight - onboard

Day 7:

Trogir - Ciovo Bay - Split. Stopping at any one of the bays off Ciovo Island, we enjoy our last morning of swimming and relaxing before returning to Split. Overnight - onboard

Day 8:

Saturday. After breakfast you will say goodbye to the crew and fellow passengers.

POSTCARDS:

Here's what some of our past travellers have written in to us and said about their experiences on this trip.

Hi Kelly, We came back from gorgeous Croatia few days ago and still can't stop thinking about it. Sailing the Dalmatian coastline and exploring different town every day was amazing. Trogir known also as 'little Venice' was definitely the highlight of the tour with its beautiful architecture and venetian-like canals. Great experience! Thanks!

Kerry & Sophie, Sep 2010

Hi John, I wanted to let you know that me and my girlfriend had a great time in Croatia last month. This holiday was just what we needed - to get away from the city, chill out on the white beaches and swim in the blue sea... so relaxing! Cheers!

Michael Bradley, Aug 2010

I have been on sailing holidays before and have to admit this trip was one of the best ones! In eight days I managed to see and learn so much with still enough time to relax in the sun. Krka Waterfalls were simply stunning! I would highly recommend this sailing holiday.
